FUNERAL OF PATRICK FEALY. Services Held at Church of Immaculate Conception.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, corner of 8th and N streets northwest, over the remains of Patrick Fealy, who died suddenly early Thursday morning at the residence of his son-in-law. Mr. John W. Cotter, 433 Rhode Island avenue northwest. Mr. Fealy was one of the a little over fifty years. He came from Ireland to the United States when a young man, and up to the time of his retirement several years ago had been actively engaged in business. Mr. Fealy had a wide circle of relatives and warm friends, who regarded him highly on account of many ennobling traits of character. He had made his home during late years with his daughter, Mrs. John W. Cotter. Hundreds of friends called to express their sympathy, and a number of beautiful flower pieces were placed about the casket.

The funeral was largely attended. Solemn high requiem mass was celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Ignatius Fealy, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church and a grandnephew of the deceased, being the celebrant. Assisting at the mass were Rev. F. X. Bischoff, assistant pastor of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church; Rev. William E. Carroll of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church; Rev. Ambrick's Roman Catholic Church; Rev. Ambrick's Roman Catholic Church; Rev. Ambrick Beavens. William E. Carroll of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church; Rev. Ambrose Beavans, assistant pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and a number of other clerical friends of the family. The boys' choir of the church, with Harry Wheaton Howard at the organ, sang the music of the mass. Interment was made at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Mr. Fealy is survived by a wife, Ellen Fealy; five daughters and a large number of grandchildren, six of whom acted as pallbearers.

ASSURED OF SUCCESS

MASONIC MAY PESTIVAL HAS PROMISING OUTLOOK.

The outlook for the success of the Masonic May Festival, to be held at Convention Hall during the week beginning May 21, was said to be assured at a control last night, at headquarters in The Star building. Mr. Thomas C. Noyes, chairman of the board, and Mr. J. Frank Trazzare, the secretary, both reported that the sale of tickets has been unprecedented, and that enthusiasm was observable over the coming event throughout the Masonic fraternity in the District. A presentation was made to the festival by Mr. B. H. Warner in the form of a magnificent and costly oil painting by Presbyterian Church, 4½ street northwest near C. The department commander, B. P. Entrikin, extends an invitation to 'the members of the Women's Relief Corps to be present. The department president will meet her staff in the vestibule of the church at 7:30 p.m.

Department aids are requested to report at G. A. R. Hall Tuesday, May 29, to assist in preparing luncheon, to be served at Arlington, to veterans and members assisting in decorating.

Assignments to cemeteries are as follows:

O. P. Morton, Burnside, Lincoln, at Arlington; Farragut, at Congressional, the corps to have charge of ceremonies to the sailor dead; Charles Sumner, Harmony cemetery; Geo. H. Thomas, northeast section; Logan, St. Elizabeth; Lafayette, Soldiers' Home.

Witman, the noted Philadelphia artist. It is entitled "Preparing for Market," and has been placed on exhibition in the committee rooms in The Star building. The painting is valued at $500 and depicts an early morning scene in the country at the beginning of a crisp and snowy winter day. Its principal beauty lies in the combined light effect, the mellow glare of candlelight from the window of a cottage with a thatched roof being blended with the early light of dawn reflected on the snow that has covered road, roof and the bare trees and bushes, while the drowsing horses attached to the clumsy market wagon are waiting patiently for the vehicle to be loaded with fowls and other round products. The picture will be disposed of by vote or otherwise during the festival.

Mr. E. C. Graham, chairman of the com-Witman, the noted Philadelphia artist.

Mr. E. C. Graham, chairman of the committee on donations, reported that a num-ber of costly prizes are being donated, including cut glass in decanters and other designs, besides numerous other articles to be voted to the holders of season tickets, in addition to the $500 Knabe grand In answer to inquiries the statement was made that the six coupons on the sea son tickets may all be used for six indi-vidual admissions, if presented with the main ticket, on the opening night of the ball, or on any other evening, or at the FIGHT FOR SMALL OFFICE. Reappointment of a Constable Causes Bitter Contest. Special Correspondence of The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., May 12, 1906. At a recent meeting of the Bethesda Citi zens' Association, which was attended by about seventy-five members, a resolution was adopted requesting the county commissioners to reappoint Edward Bradley a constable for that district, and a committee was named to present the resolution to the commissioners at their meeting here next, Tuesday. Another meeting of the citizens of that locality was held a few evening ago at the home of Mr. H. Bradley Davidson, at which the Bradley case was considered, and also the appointment of a justice of the peace for that section. At the latter meeting there were present Senator Blair Lee, Andrew J. Cummings, Rev. Parke P. Flournoy, H. Bradley Davidson, Cyrus Kelser, Dr. Schraeder, Alfred Wilson and Isaac W. Hendry. The reappointment of Bradley was strongly urged by Dr. Flournoy, Mr. Hendry and others, and there was no objection regis-Thus it seems that the fight for Bradley's reappointment has not been given up by the citizens of Bethesda and that they still hope to have the county com-missioners heed the voice of the people of that locality and appoint the man of their Probably never in the history of the state has such another fight been made over such an insignificant office. Two red-hot hearings have already been held before the board of county commissioners, and the in-dications are that the meeting next Tues-day, when the matter will be finally dis-posed of, will be equally lively.

NIGHT FORCE BUSY.

work of the night forces at the govhave been compelled to work overtime in order to get out the work. Each night these forces work on the current work from the Capitol, which must be finished before they leave the office the following morning. This class of work has been much heavier this session, it is said, than ever before in the history of the government printing office. Since Congress convened last December over 19,000 bills have been introduced in the House and over 6,000 in the Senate, making a total of over 25,000 bills. This calculation does not include the resolutions and other special matters which have been handled by Congress.

The room formerly occupied by the fore-man of printing has been refitted with handsome new furniture and a large safe, in which to keep private papers, and it is now occupied by Chief Inspector Brown and his corps of assistants.

Public Printer Stillings is devoting a great deal of his time to a personal study of the work of the different divisions of the big printery, and when he gets things thou oughly systematized he expects to be able to turn out a class of work from that office which will not be excelled anywhere in the

THREE RIBS BROKEN. Wm. Vessels Accused of Assaulting

Minnie Harris. While on duty in Congress court, Georgetown, last evening about 8 o'clock, Policemen Peterson and Kuster learned that a colored woman named Minnie Harris, fiftyfive years of age, was at her home, 4 Congress court, suffering from severe injuries received at the hands of a young colored man yesterday morning. The policemen removed the woman to Georgetown University Hospital. The surgeons announced that three of the patient's ribs had been fractured and that she had received numerous painful cuts and bruises. While her condition was causing her intense pain the sur geons did not anticipate fatal results. Mrs. Harris told the police that the in juries were inflicted by a man named William Vessels. Vessels, the police were informed, left Georgetown during the day, but he returned last night and was arrest-ed while near the Aqueduct bridge. A charge of assault was preferred against Child Saved; Automobile Smashed. John C. Davidson, forty years of age, of 1314 G street, had an exciting experience in his automobile yesterday afternoon while on 14th street between Rhode Island avenue and N street. A child appeared upor the street in front of his machine and wher he realized he was going to have difficulty in preventing the vehicle from running over the little one he steered toward the curb and shut off the current. The autom was going at too great a rate of speed to be stopped within the space between the car tracks and the curb, but Mr. Davidson was determined that he would not injure the child and so he let the auto bump

THE PRACTICAL MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT ALCORTA.

BUENOS AYRES, May 12 .- President Figuero Alcorta opened congress here today and read his message. He said a bill would be submitted to congress for granting amnesty to those persons convicted of participation in the revolt of Febraary, 1905. He especially recommended the introduction of a bill concerning the social question.

President Alcorta said that Argentina would support the congresses of Rio Janeiro and The Hague, and that he considered arbitration to be the sole means for settling disputes. He would, at the pan-American congress at Rio Janeiro, endeavor to cement the bases of friendship between the nations of America. The conversion funds now amount to 14,- 607,000 gold plasters. President Alcorta declared himself a partisan for the maintenance of the gold plasference of the officers of the board of con- ter instead of for the creation of a new monetary unit. The internal debt of Argentina on December 31, 1905, was $8,000,000 paper plasters and 15,000,000 gold plasters. The external debt was $20,000,000 gold plasters.

For Modern Methods.
